LLA-PAC Endorses Reelection of Don Guardian as Mayor of Atlantic City

New Brunswick, NJ (September 18, 2017).-The Political Action Committee of The Latino Leadership Alliance, the largest Latino advocacy organization in New Jersey representing professional leaders and most of the leading Latino organizations across the state, announced today its endorsement of the reelection of Don Guardian as Mayor of Atlantic City.

"LLANJ PAC is proud to endorse Don Guardian for Mayor of Atlantic City," said Dr. Maria Teresa Montilla, President of LLANJ-PAC. "Don is a true and very active community champion who was born and raised in New Jersey to parents with a long history of service and commitment to others. He is a seasoned committed leader who has dedicated his entire life to fight for our working families, for better quality of life, for the advancement of our diverse communities, for effective cost management, and for the progress and prosperity of our diverse communities. His first term as Mayor was marked by his characteristic fighting and positive spirit, and a relentless commitment to the well-being of all the people of Atlantic City."

In accepting such a historic endorsement announced today at 12:30pm in his campaign headquarters at 2309 Atlantic Avenue in Atlantic City, NJ, Don, said:

"I am privileged and lucky to receive the official endorsement from LLANJ-PAC, a unifying and inclusive organization totally committed to the socio economic and political advancement of all of us in New Jersey. Receiving this historic endorsement from such a distinguished and important entity reminds me of what I've learned from my parents as I grew up in New Jersey; my parents instilled in me the importance of being committed to public service and to possess a steadfast belief that, together, we can climb any mountain and solve any problem."

"Don will continue to serve the people of Atlantic City with distinction, as he has done over the past four years" said Paul Perez, VP of LLANJ. "With his public management experience and unrelenting commitment towards implementing effective innovative quality of life initiatives, and his passion to serve the people, he has been a Mayor for Everyone."
